6.1. Education (Academic)

Moira noted that Ed Ac are following up on some loose ends, adding that if Committee Members do not have access to the Council's OB Reports to message the Ed OBs.

There are two major campaigns that Ed Ac are working to help accelerate: one being the Environment Department's Divestment Petition to bring to University Council on the 3rd of May, and the second being Queer's Review into the subject Feminism taught by Holly Lawford-Smith to Academic Board on the 12th of May.

Referencing the later motion for SRN, Moira updated about the Governance Training held on the 30th for existing reps. The second round was as successful as Ed Ac had hoped, but the aim is to reach out to student societies to fill positions. Moira gave the example of the Biomed Students Society offering a rep for Bachelor of Biomedicine Course Standing Committee.

Moira discussed what happened at the last Academic Board, including the Snow Foundation removing themselves from the University because of the honorary doctorates, and the snap protest at the Menzies Institute.

6.2. Education (Public)

Ruby added that things too have been slowing down slightly for the Ed Pub Office. Wednesday the 30th of March was the Know Your Rights Workshop with the Young Workers Centre, added that the engagement was really positive in reflecting how these skills will be translated to the workplaces of attendees. Ruby added that they're looking for another organisation for their next Workshop and to reach out if Committee Members have ideas.
