

Synthetic Transformation

Simon Finn

Synthetic Transformation is an exploration into the drawn, the sculptural and their relationships to synthetic animated realities. The exhibition investigates spatial and temporal relationships between sculpture, intricate and abstract charcoal drawings and imagery generated using computational physics systems.

> George Paton Gallery

Archive 2012
2/1: 6-16 March