

The Manner of Matter

9 /19 September 2003

The Manner of Matter explores the process of abstraction through the repetitive action of pleating ribbon. The 'Polyploats' that result from this activity are ornamental, organic and fluid structures that occupy the space of the gallery. This work explores these structures as continually evolving beings that are connected to our internal and external worlds.