

Unearthed

Tamar Dolev / Jeanette Purkis

4 / 14 May 2004

My works are based on the body. I am interested in the structure and movement of the body as well as its complexity and aesthetics. I wanted to explore the forms of different selected structures of the body.

Tamar Dolev, 2004

Jeanette Purkis' current body of work deals exclusively with issues that have arisen from her personal history. This takes the form of making the political personal.
