2. Motions on Notice

2.1 Sex & Society in 21st Century Australia – expenditure for food

A question about potential other panellists was asked. Thibaut said that Rufus Black (Ormond College Master) was a possibility.

Andrea suggested that a moderator be appointed or a policy developed to prevent transphobic or whorephobic comments.

Thibaut said that he is happy to respect that sentiment, and would be happy for the Queer Department to set the scene, but did not want to shut down discussion.

Itsi suggested that an amendment be made to require the event to be planned in conjunction with relevant UMSU departments. This was amenable to the mover and seconder.

Preamble: I, Thibaut Clamart, a current student at the University of Melbourne, am moving up this motion so as to have food at a lunchtime event at the Union House on porn, sex, freedom, gender, education. Fiona Patten MLC would engage with students on those matters during that event.

Fiona Patten was elected at the last Victorian state elections and is a member of the Victorian legislative council for the Australian Sex Party. As such, she has very interesting perspectives on numerous societal issues around sex, gender, and education.

Fiona Patten is available to come to campus on Friday 25 September, and I am certain that a discussion with her would be both challenging and interesting. As a member of parliament, she will also provide more insight on its functioning as well. The event will be designed to be interactive, so fascinating debates are to be expected!

If the Student Council would consent to this expenditure, it would allow catering at the event: no need to choose between pizza and Fiona!!

Motion: To move up to $150 from budget line Student Grants and Initiatives for food for ‘Sex and Society in 21st century Australia: a discussion with Fiona Patten MLC’, organized in consultation with the Queer and Wom*n’s Departments.

Mover: Thibaut Clamart
Seconder: Hana Dalton

Andrea spoke to the nature of the motion.

Motion: To pass up to $300 from the Queer special events and projects line to hold an industry night in conjunction with GSA queer. Money will go towards catering and mic hire.

Mover: Andrea Bozic
Seconder: Danielle Bagnato
