Light vs. Weight
Aimee Howard, Bel Rodziewicz and Georga Ryan

Light vs. Weight presents a collaboration and investigation into the process of making, derived from traditional painting formalities. Notions of light, space and object revel into an internal immersive environment. Experiential, site-specific installations will be constructed forming a dialogue between the Minimalism and Art Povera movements.