Looking at the Overlooked
Mia Kenway, Brooke Williams and Leah Williams
Curated by Joleen Loh

Wherever we go, there will always be invisible structures impinging on our bodies and thoughts, which we cannot help but be conditioned by. Looking at the Overlooked explores the undermined and seemingly insignificant details in our constructed environment that, despite being unnoticed, shape our contemporary existence.