PLEASE BRING:
COMFORTABLE SHOES

Here at Zine we would like to congratulate you all on completing the whole entire exceptionally excellent first week of 2015 VCESS! Here’s a divine recap of all that this week entailed:

Monday your lives were changed forever as you were welcomed into the VCESS family. All the workshops that ran on Tuesday were a hit, as was trivia on Wednesday. A deliciously fancy high tea took place yesterday on the second floor of Union House. There were cakes and cookies and twisted delights, but ironically the feature beverage (tea) was nowhere to be seen.

A heap of new and exciting workshops also ran yesterday at VCESS. Res coordinator Stobie gave an out-of-this-world workshop about a career in aviation (which the students were over the moon with). The hair braiding workshop was also a hit, model Hayley having her hair expertly weaved into countless styles. Cryptic crosswords were “decrypted” in another workshop, and Director T-Walker taught us how to tie knots like a pro. The calculator skills workshop gave students a massive head-start to all the calculating they will be doing this year, while the photography workshop took an incursion around campus before showing their photos off in a fabulous in-class exhibition. Crochet took intricateness to whole a new level as the students were taught how to take a ball of wool and a needle and create a patterned wonder of an artwork. Finally, the Managing Stress and Anxiety workshop gave us really important advice, including techniques such as yoga and meditation for relaxation.

At 11.15am today (like, in 15 minutes) there are two seminars to choose from:

Seminar 1 – Managing Stress and Anxiety – JH Michell Theatre, Richard Berry Ground floor

This interactive seminar will focus on managing stress and anxiety, including how to identify and differentiate between stress and anxiety, and, strategies one might use to overcome periods of high stress. Special focus will be placed on managing stress and anxiety throughout the exam period, with the aim being to equip participants with techniques and strategies they could use/put in place to assist mental health functioning throughout the VCE period - and throughout future life.

Seminar 2 – Film analysis - Lyle Theatre Redmond Barry Building Level 1

Want to be the next Margaret or David? Love film? Then come along to this presentation on how to analyse film form. Some English students will be given the option of studying a film text for their year 12. This presentation will give you the key components of film form to give you the edge in your studies. Examples used in the lecture will range from 60s French New Wave cinema to fan made Youtube clips so come along to this workshop to be entertained while you learn.

VCE can be pretty stressful; feel fancy and de-stress with these top tips

Treat yo’ self

Fancy Formal Dos and DON’TS

Do

Travel with a big group of friends to start your night off well. I recommend hiring a party bus.

Take advantage of the food. Always eat fancy food. Same applies to 18th.

Thank your teachers if they are there.

Dress up fancy. If you love your outfit now you’ll love to laugh at it in the future.

Don’t

Travel with your big group in a Hummer Limo. Unless you want to be a big group of douchebags.

Take advantage of the drinks. If you get drunk before your formal, you will spend it in the bathroom. Don’t be that guy/girl.

Burn your bridges. You still need the teachers to write our recommendations.

Break the bank. It’s better spent at Uni or on travel, trust us.

Fancy dressing with Iggy Azalea

A VCESS t shirt is a staple for anyone who’s a style guru, it shows everyone that you’re working on your studies.

As an Australian, Iggy is well aware of the dangers of sunburn. She suggests you fashion your t shirt into a stylish hat to shade your face and neck. Bonus: airing your shirt like this prolongs time between washes.

If your shirt is too long, cut any extra fabric off into 5x8cm pieces and use them to write Studmuffin votes.

You’re so fancy, which most people already know, but adding crystals, designer logos, and carrying around a small pet during the program will help drive the point home.

A lanyard automatically shows you are more important than other basic b*tches, wear it constantly.

Formal Wear Climbing to level 2 in heels.

Can’t think of anything funny to say about it. Knot!

On Monday we will only have the top 30 in the zine. Determined by the outcome at 4pm on Friday, you can only vote for the Top 30. At it currently stands you need more than a 36 to make it but be warned! The number is likely to be much higher.

Much Study. So Muffiny.
Fancy is a state of mind...

Thought of the day:

""

HOROSCOPES

ARIES (MAR 21 - APR 19)

Unfortunately, the market was all out of the French brie you like, so you will crawl into the foetal position and weep.

TAURUS (APR 20 - MAY 20)

Your dinner jacket was not pressed in time for the state dinner, so you will have to wear your linen suit. Quelle horreur!

GEMINI (MAY 21 - JUN 20)

You regard shows such as Jersey Shore and Big Brother as documentaries about the horrors of mixing with the lower classes.

CANCER (JUN - JUL 22)

When your pony became ill, your father bought you a yacht. When it sank, you were bought a helicopter. Who knows what will come next?

LEO (JUL 23 - AUG 22)

Your customary uniform of blazers with a polo shirt simply screams 'my father is a lawyer so you can't sue me.'

VIRGO (AUG 23 - SEP 22)

The string quartet that played at your 18th birthday party unfortunately didn't know Teenage Dirtbag but could play a good waltz.

LIBRA (SEP 23 - OCT 22)

Your morning croissant with jam was marred by accidental consumption of double cream instead of thickened cream. Your day is ruined.

SCORPIO (OCT 21 - NOV 22)

When wine tasting in Bordeaux, you find that the bottle was not cellared properly. You exit aghast.

SAGITTARIUS (NOV 22 - DEC 21)

You usually holiday in Spain, but find that there are not enough Michelin-starred restaurants and instead move to Italy.

CAPRICORN (DEC 22 - JAN 19)

You learned Latin at school. Not to use, but to drop into conversation at opportune moments.

AQUARIUS (JAN 20 - FEB 18)

Your butler laid out your tie for you to wear tomorrow, when you wanted to wear your cravat. Now you feel too awkward to correct him.

PICES (FEB 19 - MAR 20)

When entering a room, you feel uncomfortable unless loudly announced by a footman.
