Diversity Week

This became a lot busier than we had anticipated, as we had added a range of things to the week relatively last-minute in response to the Christchurch attacks. Aside from planned events, we additionally ran a vigil on the Tuesday and an interactive campaign on Wednesday. We'd like to thank everyone who helped us with this week.

PASS training

We're meeting the panel on Monday morning to discuss ideas and to formulate a presentation. If there's anything you'd like us to cover or might be interested in presenting please let us know. The training session itself has been pushed to week 6 owing to Diversity Week impacting both our availabilities as well as that of the Faculty of Arts. The panel consists of about 8 members at the moment.

Anti-Racism Workshops

We're finalising a line-up of presenters now!

Us Screening

We're doing an excursion/collaboration with UMSU Indigenous and Monash African Students Society this Friday to go see Us. We sold 60 tickets within a day, and are excited to be collaborating on things with other departments/groups/campuses etc.

Southbank Collective

We're planning to run a Collective at Southbank on Thursday at 1-2pm in weeks 6 and 10. We're also planning an open mic night there on Friday evening in week 10.

Games Night (with UMSU Intl)

This is happening this Wednesday, with AV set up from 1-4pm and the actual event running 4-8pm. Noted for future office bearers is that the timing of this event is a little unfortunate given that Night Market and UMSU Intl elections are very much on the horizon, which means resources for promotion and preparation have been somewhat limited. Still, we're very keen to collaborate and introduce more social events into the UMSU PoC calendar this year.
