The tote bag designs are getting finalised as we speak, they look sick as and are bound to be a hit with everyone coming through in O week. We have reached out to an awesome student of colour who has been hard at work with the designs. We are also collaborating with Environment to host a bushfire relief concert in O Week with proceeds from it going to firefighting services and First Nations Communities affected by the fires. We are also in the process of organising Comms jobs to promote our Migrant Workers Collective and POC Mental Health campaigns during O week. We will also be at the ‘No War in Iran’ rally organised by the Worker Student Alliance, where Gurpreet will be speaking on how western imperialism is cooked.
