7. Motions on Notice

7.1 – Approval of movement of department funds back into whole of union budget

PREAMBLE: As the union is looking to recover funds after the move into the Student Precinct, many departments have been asked to surrender unspent funds back to the whole of union budget, with a relevant motion being passed in Student Council 16(22). While at the time, Rook suggested that the Queer Department could surrender $7000, unexpected costs since then have mean that the department can only spare $4250 due to printing CAMP, ensuring the editors are paid, and having a launch party.

MOTION: To approve the surrender of $4250 from the Queer Department budget to the whole of union budget

Mover: Renee

Secunder: Kat

CARRIED

7.2 – Amendment of motion 6.3 meeting 10(22) to increase approved allocation to CAMP to $7678

PREAMBLE: The cost of printing CAMP 2022 has been more than expected, with the $6500 initially allocated for printing not being enough and the cost of 900 copies instead being $7678. This reflects issues with initial budget cuts in December 2021, with the CAMP budget being slashed from $12 k to $9 k as a result of budget allocation. Fortunately, with the semester 1 financial report, the department does have available funds to make up this amount.

MOTION: To amend motion 6.3 from meeting 10(22) to increase approved allocation for CAMP printing to $7678

Mover: John

Second: Renee

CARRIED

7.3 – Approval of $300 from the Special Events/Projects budget line for a CAMP 2022 launch party at the Ida Bar

MOTION: To approve expenditure of $300 from the Special Events/Projects budget line for a CAMP 2022 launch party at the Ida Bar

Mover: Renee

Second: John
