The Education Department shall be responsible for advertising the grants, with applications to open immediately and close by 10 June 2025.

Luv spoke to changes on motion 4.1. He noted that the Whole-of-Union funds would no longer be used, instead using the Students' Council Budget line (ending in 3847). He also noted that the Education Department would not be responsible for applications, and that applications would close by 10th of June.

Lottie suggested that the change from "2024 NUS Education Conference" to "2025 NUS Education Conference" be made.

Luv proposed an amendment:

Proposed Amendment:

To amend the motion so that it reads "That Students' Council authorises the delegation of $10,000 from the Students' Council budget line (ending 3847) to the Operations Sub-committee, to be used for issuing grants to students attending the 2025 NUS Education Conference. Applications open immediately and close by 10 June 2025."

This was amenable to the mover.

4.2. Honoraria for Mudfest

Luv asked for members of Special Council to speak to motion, and invited Tianyi (Creative Arts OB) to speak about MudFest 2025.

Tianyi gave a brief description on the event's history, goals and its purpose for students. He detailed the types of events that would take place, including but not limited to live performances, DJ sets, theatre performances, comedy, visual arts and motion picture installations. The event will last for five days. He noted that it is one of UMSU's biggest events, hence explaining the increased funding allocation.

Sara mentioned that the $10,000 allocation would be in addition to the standard honoraria for the Creative Arts OBs.

Viraj Patel left Zoom and joined Special Council in person

Motion 4: That Students' Council approves the allocation of $10,000 from the MudFest budget line to pay honorariums to the Creative Directors of Mudfest 2025.

4.3. UMSU Blak Ball

Noah spoke to the motion. He noted a lack of committee stability and support, hence hoping that 'Blak Ball' would drive further engagement for the Indigenous Department.

Luv noted that the approval for $4000 had already been mentioned to the Operations Sub-Committee.

Motion 5: To pass $4000 from the events budget line for the payment of catering for the Indigenous Department's 'Blak ball' event.

Moved: Noah Kellett
