

Let me,
Caitlin Cummane
ENTRANCE GALLERY

Let me, provides snatchments of people and places to simultaneously convey intimacy and isolation, connection and disconnection. The pieces germinate from an interest in impossibilities to do with representing a reality, recreating and imposing an experience and understanding the perceptions of others, as well as our own.

> George Paton Gallery

Archive Semester Two 2014
2/3A 12 — 22 August