

The Repositioning of Objects that Once Functioned
Sean McDowell
Main Gallery

The Repositioning of Objects that Once Functioned consists of a series of sculptures that have been derived from an investigation of materiality. Drawing on actions of fitting things together, the artworks deal with the formal qualities of balance, colour, surface, and form.

George Paton Gallery Exhibition Archive 2018
2b: 14—23 March