

I must be living twice

Rosa Spring Voss

I Must Be Living Twice is a series of handprinted photographic portraits, still lives and sculptures. Through the rhythmic process of printing, cropping, framing and installing, the body of work emerged as a way of re-staging memories from childhood with the proposition of imagining a 'second take' on events in my life.

Photo documentation: Astrid Mulder