

fluid condition

HILLS and Madeleine Sloane

For fluid condition two artists have responded to a series of prompts examining their respective queer experiences. The concept of the 'fluid' forms the core of their investigation, as they draw parallels between the nature of bodies of water and inquiries surrounding identity and sexuality.

Photo documentation: Astrid Mulder