

Invasion
Mohini Mehta

Invasion is a series of work depicting the relationship between humans and the environment. Living at a time with constant struggle to find alternatives, these series of work try to bridge the gap of understanding. The works here should invoke a voice within the viewers to bring about a change..

Photo documentation: Astrid Mulder