

Archives

Rohan Schwartz

19-29 May

Archives is firstly an enquiry into the ephemeral quality of tangible materials. The work in this exhibition provides potential insights into the seemingly unattainable nature of the physical world. Secondly, the nature of this artwork is artificial, constructed; enquiring into the possible effects arising from human intervention on external environments.