

Conjecture

School of Creative Arts Third Year Students
1/10 November 2005

Conjecture is an exhibition formulated, executed, curated and catalogued by final year students. In a project that aims to promote a dialogue between theory and practice, Conjecture takes conceptualism as its point of departure rather than its end point.

Opening night

Wednesday 2 November, 5/7pm