

The Empty Space & the Abstrakt Landscape

Francesca Mataraga 7 /17 October

The Empty Space Project is an investigation into imaginary and negative space where solid forms act as brackets to the space between them. The space is articulated as a solid acrylic or mirror box creating spatial and visual illusions. The Abstrakt Landscape is an extension of this project.

Opening night: Wednesday 8 October, 5 /7pm