

From Nowhere

by Susan Long

24 October / 3 November 2000

A video installation incorporating sound and still images which positions the viewer within a sensualised female-to-female gaze. In this instance the viewer occupies the space between the two female subjects—suspended in a state of seeing.