

HORIZON

Louise Lavarack. 24 April / 4 May

Static forest of poles... a figure breaks the hovering mass. Wooden clanking. Flickering surfaces. Prickling shadows. Undulating wake. The grid dissolves, resolves. Swaying layers that ebb and flow, settling to stasis. Unstable watery horizon, a floating pendulum... rising, falling, rising again... in vertical oscillation between gravities.