

Light is like Water

Michelle Sakaris. 26 August / 5 September

Transforming the gallery into a body of water, a space is created for visitors to walk amongst live fish. A series of videos of ritualistic performance and self-portraiture reflect on the dynamic relationship between the one with the many and the same with the other in the formation of identity.

Opening night: Wednesday 25 August 5 /7pm