

Touch

Molly Cook
11-21 August

Touch is an exploration of materials and objects that are often missed or discarded. It does not attempt to elevate the materials but to enhance their natural qualities. The show focuses on the subtle transformations materials take on when manipulated by the delicate touch of hand and light.