

Conflict of position form

Online option: This form can be submitted online. You will have received a link in your student email. If you submit online, you'll get an immediate acknowledgement.

Use this form if you have nominated for multiple positions, and there is some combination of those positions you are not eligible to hold.

Note this form must be received by 12noon (Melbourne time), Friday 14th August 2026.

If you're running for multiple positions that can't be held simultaneously, the Electoral Regulations require you to submit a list of your preferences. This information is collected on the nomination form. You need to submit this form only if you wish to override the preferences you selected on the nomination form.

Please complete the form below, sign, and send to returningofficer@union.unimelb.edu.au.
