

Re-figuration

Second Year School of Creative Arts Students

23 May/2 June 2006

The representation of the human form and its relation to 'humanness' provides a source of endless fascination for artists. In this exhibition, students from the School of Creative Arts in collaboration with postgraduate students from the Curatorship course, explore the complex interplay between ideas about subjectivity and the possibilities of its representation.

Opening night

Wednesday 24 May, 5/7pm