

Haptic Sense

Seijiro Nishioka

28 July–7 August

Haptic Sense is an installation that creates an immersive space exploring the intimate relationship between space and colour. As viewers submerge through the installation, the downpour of materials enhances formless characteristics while the sense of mystery in the work generates a pleasurable terror.