1. Status

1.1 These regulations set those duties and responsibilities of Office Bearers, Students’ Councilors and Committee Representatives that are in addition to those prescribed in the Constitution, and shall be construed in accordance with the Constitution and other Regulations of UMSU, as laid out in C173 and C174.

1.2 The definitions of C2.1 and rules of construction of C2.2 are applicable to these regulations.

2. Office Bearer / Representative Induction

2.1 UMSU recognises that the responsible, efficient and successful operation of the organisation depends upon the skills of the elected officials and their ability to work with staff members.

2.2 UMSU shall organise induction programs for student representatives within one month of their positions commencing

2.2.1 UMSU shall also organise additional training for representatives throughout the year.

2.3 The development of the induction program at the beginning of each term shall be the responsibility of the President, General Secretary, President-Elect, General Secretary-Elect and Senior Staff Member.

3. Office Bearer Accountability

4.1 In order to be valid, all reports submitted by Office Bearers to each regular meeting of Students’ Council and the Committee to which they are accountable must:

4.1.1 Include an accurate summary of their actions and achievements since the last report, and their relevance to the department;

4.1.2 Include a record of any monies approved for expenditure by the relevant Committee or Council since the previous report;

4.1.3 Not include personal attacks on other members of the organization;

4.1.4 Include a report on any conferences attended in their capacity as an Office Bearer since the previous report; and

4.1.5 Be submitted in writing to the General Secretary prior to the distribution of the Agenda, where the General Secretary has provided at least two days written notice of this deadline.

4.2 UMSU Representatives who attend meetings of University Council or Academic Board shall be required to submit an additional report to the next subsequent meeting of Students’ Council, subject to the notice required in R4.1.5.
4.3 An Officer that does not submit a valid report to three consecutive regular meetings of the Students’ Council or the Committee to which they are accountable shall not receive remuneration for a minimum of one pay cycle until a valid report is submitted.

4.4 All Office Bearers will be required to submit to Council an annual report near the end of their term. This annual report must:

4.4.1 Include an accurate summary of their actions and achievements throughout the year;

4.4.2 An evaluation on the success or otherwise of events, projects and campaigns undertaken during the year, with reference to that Officer’s duties as outlined in the Constitution; and

4.4.3 Recommendations for future Office Bearers

4.5 Office Bearers sharing a position may submit separate reports and annual reports if the Office Bearer seeking to submit separate reports has provided at least one week’s written notice to the General Secretary and their co-Office Bearer(s).

4.6 All Office Bearers, excluding the Media Officers, are required to submit reports to every edition of Farrago. The submission process for these reports will be outlined by the Media Officers at the start of each term of office. Office Bearers must be provided with at least one week’s written notice of every submission deadline.

4. Office Bearer Responsibilities and Duties

5.1 Each Officer is accountable to and subject to direction by the Students’ Council, as the governing body of UMSU.

5.2 Each Officer is also accountable to and subject to direction by the relevant Committee corresponding to the office held by the Officer. The provisions of C79A.6 will apply in the event of any inconsistency between the direction of the Committee and the Students’ Council.

5.3 The President and General Secretary are accountable to and subject to direction by the Students’ Council and must act in accordance with the direction of the Students’ Council except to the extent the direction would require the President or the General Secretary to act in breach of the Constitution or the Act.

5.5.20 must ensure they are accessible to students for a reasonable proportion of hours each week

5.5.21 Must indicate their availability to students on their office door or other visible location and the UMSU website.

5.6 If there is a reasonable belief that an Officer has not carried out his or her responsibilities or duties, the General Secretary shall refer the Officer to the Students’ Council as per C194.

6. Office Bearer Meetings

6.1 Office Bearers shall be reasonably required to attend Office Bearer meetings scheduled by the General Secretary.

6.2 Meetings shall be held on a regular or semi-regular basis, as determined by the General Secretary in consultation with Office Bearers.

6.3 The agenda of Office Bearer meetings shall include but not be limited to:

6.2.1 Reports on what each department and Office Bearer is working on, including events, projects and campaigns;

6.2.2 Opportunities for Office Bearers and departments to support each other and collaborate.

7. Temporary Filling of Officer Positions

7.1 If an Officer position becomes vacant, Students’ Council or the relevant Committee may appoint a Member to act as that Officer on a temporary basis, in accordance with C61.

7.2 Prior to any temporary appointment, the General Secretary shall issue at least one week’s notice and a call for nominations to members by:by:

7.5.1 email; and

7.5.2 posting notice on the UMSU website.

7.4 The General Secretary shall be responsible for collecting nominations.

8.4.1 If the General Secretary’s position is vacant, the President shall be responsible for collecting nominations.
8.4.2 If both the General Secretary and President positions are vacant, the senior staff member shall be responsible for collecting nominations.

7.5 When determining who shall be appointed to fill a vacant Officer position, the Students’ Council or relevant Committee shall take into consideration the person’s:

7.8.1 previous experience;
7.8.2 involvement in UMSU, Department, Collective, Committee, Students’ Council or any other body thereof;
7.8.3 previous or current holding of a Officer position in UMSU; and
7.8.4 proven honesty and integrity; and
7.8.5 proven commitment to the aims and objectives of UMSU.

8. Farrago

8.1 Farrago shall be an independent publication of UMSU, and the Media Officers shall have discretion as to the content of each edition, notwithstanding any requirements of the Constitution, Regulations or Policy

8.2 Farrago shall not publish material that is contrary to the aims and objectives of UMSU.

8.3 Each issue of Farrago shall prominently state:

8.3.1 "Farrago is the Newspaper of the University of Melbourne Student Union (UMSU). Farrago is published by the General Secretary. The views expressed herein are not necessarily those of UMSU."

8.4 The Media Officers shall ensure that the production of Farrago and any other publication of the Media Department are produced in an environmentally and financially responsible manner.

9. UMSU Publications

9.1 The Publisher of all materials produced by UMSU or any UMSU Department shall be the General Secretary.

9.2 The UMSU Logo shall be prominently displayed on all material produced by UMSU or any Department of UMSU.

9.2.1 The Publisher may order the destruction, confiscation, ceasing of distribution or refusal of payment for production of any material produced by UMSU or a Department thereof that fails to prominently display the UMSU Logo, or is in contravention of R9.5.

9.3 Any Departments wishing to develop their own logo shall incorporate the UMSU Logo as part of their individual logo, or if a Department wishes to use a logo that does not incorporate the UMSU Logo, the UMSU Logo must still be prominently displayed on all material produced by that Department.

9.4 No material funded in part or wholly by UMSU or otherwise supported by UMSU may be used for militaristic or nationalist purposes, or to promote discrimination on the basis of race, colour, sex, sexuality, gender identity, age, physical disability, mental illness, economic circumstances, religion or national or social origin.

9.5 All material published by UMSU or any Department of UMSU must be lodged with the General Secretary and the Senior Staff Member.
