Union House Theatre has two multipurpose theatre spaces available for hire for events — be they performances, presentations, special events, functions, rehearsals, concerts or cinema screenings.

Both spaces are available for hire outside of semester dates, between June — July and November — December each year, with some limited availability during semester. Our venues are staffed by industry professionals who can advise and assist you in all aspects related to your hire.

SPACES

UNION THEATRE

Location: Ground floor, Union House
University of Melbourne, Parkville

Capacity: 374 seats

Accessibility: Wheelchair accessible

The Union Theatre is a proscenium arch style venue with a large stage, house curtain, 31 live-fly tower and refurbished auditorium. Its acoustics are sympathetic to untrained voices and the stage is not raked, making this a popular venue for student and amateur performances including musicals, dance shows and end of year concerts. The theatre's deep fore-stage and audio-visual facilities also make it ideal for corporate and conference presentations. Backstage, lighting and equipment are of a professional standard.

GUILD THEATRE

Location: Level 1, Union House
University of Melbourne, Parkville
(next to the Union House Theatre office)

Capacity: 100 seats

Accessibility: Wheelchair accessible

The Guild Theatre is a wheelchair accessible black-box studio style theatre seating up to 100 people. The venue has a sprung-floor stage (not raised) that allows for flexible seating and staging configurations. Well-equipped in the areas of lighting and sound, the Guild Theatre is suitable for performance, rehearsals, seminars and small conferences.
